

International Association of Business Communicators
Detroit

PRESENTS:

A COMMUNICATIONS LOVE STORY: Networking with IABC Detroit

Join your friends and colleagues for a pre-Valentine glass of cheer! It's been a minute and we can't wait to see everyone IRL – join us at one of our favorite wine bars located in the heart of Corktown for an evening of networking and missed connections.

Motor City Wine – Who are we?

Wine shop? Wine bar? That's right. We have a rather large, but not overwhelming, selection of wines from all over the world. Our selection changes weekly so please come in often! Wines are priced retail, and for a small corkage fee of $10, can be drank in our shop. That's right, no huge 200% bar/restaurant mark-up here. Cheers!

IABC Detroit – Who are we?

IABC Detroit is your connection to a local community of business communicators focused on career development at every level. We offer professional development programs, relevant communications resources, opportunities for development, recognition, networking and building new skills – all within a wide range of communication specialties and industries.
